MOTION FOR APPOINTMENT OF SPECIAL
ADMINISTRATOR AND TO SUBSTITUTE SPECIAL
ADMINISTRATOR FOR PLAINTIFF MICHAEL TATE

Petitioner Edna Tate, by counsel, moves the Court for entry of an order appointing her as special administrator for the estate of Michael Tate, her deceased son, for the purpose of effectuating the settlement of this action.

As grounds for this motion, petitioner states as follows:

1. Plaintiff Michael Tate agreed to settle this lawsuit in March of 2008 for a total amount of five thousand dollars. Mr. Tate died intestate before he could sign the settlement papers.
2. Edna Tate, the mother of Michael Tate, paid the funeral expenses, which total about five thousand dollars.
3. No petition for letters of office for the estate of Michael Tate has been filed.
4. The sole asset of the estate is this cause of action.

5. Appointment of a special representative by a federal court was approved by the Seventh Circuit in Anderson v. Romero, 42 F.3d 1121 (7th Cir. 1994), where, in the absence of an executor for the estate of the deceased plaintiff, the Court of appeals appointed plaintiff's counsel "as special administrators in substitution of the deceased." Id. at 1125. The Court of Appeals applied the same rule in Ward v. Edgeton, 59 F.3d 652 (7th Cir. 1995), where it directed the clerk to notify the next of kin of the deceased plaintiff that they could "apply to this court for appointment as [plaintiff's] special representative if they desire to prosecute the appeal." Id. at 653. These decisions were recently followed by another judge of this district in Foster v. Elyea, 06 CV 1974, where the court appointed the father of the deceased civil rights plaintiff as the special administrator. (Order, February 16, 2007, attached.)

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ Kenneth N. Flaxman
